

Identity

Woman. I find strength in identifying as a woman. Who run the world?

Mexican. Food is how I feel connected to my culture.

Acceptance. Labels are there to help others find comfort in your identity.

Love. Love is love. Love is art. Representation matters.

Friend. Friends are the family you choose.

Home. Home is where your heart feels at peace. San Diego.

Home. Home is where your heart feels at peace. Los Angeles.

Family. Daughter, sister, niece, cousin. Quality over quantity.

Advocate. Use your privilege. Advocacy and social justice is how you bring about change.

Lerner. Reading is powerful. I've been a student for what feels like almost my whole life.

Social Issues

Goals. Diversity, Inclusivity, Acceptance, Belonging.

Pollution. Urban cities often have high levels of pollution. Kids are most susceptible and often develop asthma.

Graffiti. Although it can be art, sometimes it can also be gang related and territorial.

Food deserts. Liquor stores are more accessible than grocery stores.

Gates. Schools that look more similar to detention centers, than places that foster learning.